City Council Report - January 2025 - RAC

Events at the Russellville Aquatic Center during December included:

- On December 3rd, we hosted the RHS Swim Meet.
- We welcomed the Perryville School District on December 16th, bringing approximately 100 students to celebrate AR Testing.
- Our final in-water classes concluded with Aqua Zumba on December 12th and Water Aerobics (both Deep and Shallow) finishing on December 20th.
- Janna Martin led a Lifeguard Recertification course for five staff members from December 17th to December 20th, and all five are now recertified for the next two years.
- We bid farewell to our Head Guard, Wynn Brock, on Friday, December 20th, after he dedicated three and a half years of service to the community.
- We observed modified hours for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.
- We welcomed Justin Fielder as our new Head Guard and Hannah Pate as our new Lead Guard December 23rd.
- Our Therapy Pool was closed for repairs on December 29th, with plans to reopen on January 5th.
- We would also like to express our gratitude to the Manna House and the Rotary Club for providing us with sunscreen during the past summer.

For December, we sold a total of $1,835.00 in day passes.

Membership renewals for the month reached $8,396.50.

In terms of Rentals, we hosted 21 Half Room events, 1 Full Room event, and 7 Private Parties, generating a total of $2,975.00.
